

Phillip Fischer
(Principal, Silver Hilton Consulting, LLC)

Phillip Fischer has over 30 years experience in the Oil and Gas industry. In late 2010, he retired after 30 years at Chevron. Phil's most recent role was the Team Leader for Chevron's Joint Interest Audits and Analysis function. He has extensive experience in Accounting Procedure contract negotiations, audit resolution and settlements. He recently formed Silver Hilton Consulting, LLC to continue his work in the industry. He has been an active member of COPAS since approximately 1985 and has served in numerous capacities for the organization. At the National COPAS level, Phil chaired the Emerging Issues Committee from 2004 to 2005, and served as the National Audit Committee Secretary and recently Vice Chair of the Audit Committee until his retirement in 2010.

Phil is currently Co-Chairing the COPAS Deepwater Accounting Procedure Drafting Committee, where a team of industry professionals has designed a new Deepwater Accounting Procedure. This team is working to replace the 1998 Project Team Accounting Procedure with a modernized version to address the evolution of technology in the deepwater, improve chargeability of many items and eliminate many of the issues and audit claims associated with the 1998 PTAP Model Form.
