

CURT HORNE, CPL

Consulting Landman

Houston, Texas

A landman since 1981, Curt has experience in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Utah, Louisiana and Montana. After joining the American Association of Professional Landmen in 1997, Curt earned his CPL designation in 1999. He currently serves as Chair Emeritus of the Legislative and Regulatory Affairs, having previously chaired the Certification, Ethics, Publications and Field Landman Committees, and the 2013 AAPL Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. He was elected to the Executive Committee as Treasurer for 2007-2008. Curt has been named recipient of the 2008 AAPL Education Award, the 2018 AAPL Best Member Communication Award, and the 2002 AAPL Field/Independent Landman Award. On the local level, he is a member of the North Houston Association of Professional Landmen and the Houston Association of Professional Landmen, having served in leadership positions for both.

Mr. Horne serves as an instructor for Energy Land Institute, the AAPL CPL/RPL Exam Review and other AAPL seminars, presenting topics which include Real Property Law, Contract Law, The Oil & Gas Lease, Title Opinions and Curative, Conveyancing, Interest Calculations, Negotiations and Ethics. He has also spoken on a variety of topics for the Texas Land Institute, HAPL, NHAPL, ALTAPL, SAAPL, NADOA, HADOA, NALTA, ALTA and NARO, among others.

Curt lives in the Houston suburb of Pearland with his wife Jamie. They have a daughter, age 22, and a son, age 21. They are active parishioners at St. Helen Catholic Church. Curt enjoys cycling and running. He will ride in the Texas MS 150 for the eleventh time this spring, and has successfully completed the Houston Marathon.

For an introduction:

Curt Horne, CPL is a consulting landman with 39 years of experience, primarily in Texas and Oklahoma. He has chaired a number of AAPL and local association committees, including Ethics, and has served on the AAPL Executive Committee as Treasurer. Curt is an instructor for the AAPL Certified Professional Landman Exam Review, and presents multiple other seminars around the country. Curt enjoys cycling and running. He will ride in the Texas MS 150 for the eleventh time this spring, and has successfully completed the Houston Marathon.